Mr. Schlegel

Miss Temple and Dawn Price.

Welcome!

New faces and new places greeted the students as the 1977-78 school year began.

One of the new faces was Principal Stephen Schlegel, whose enthusiasm has sparked a fire in the entire student body.

Steve and his wife, Anita, came from Pratt, Kansas, where he was an assistant principal at Pratt High School.

Another new face greeted the students in the vocal music department. Lisa Temple, from Burden, Kansas, began her first year teaching having graduated from South Western. We hope it has been as an enjoyable learning experience for her as it has been for us.

Aside from the new faculty, the school itself took on a new look. The principal's office and the business office were remodeled creating more space and moving the teacher's lounge into Mr. Everhart's old office.

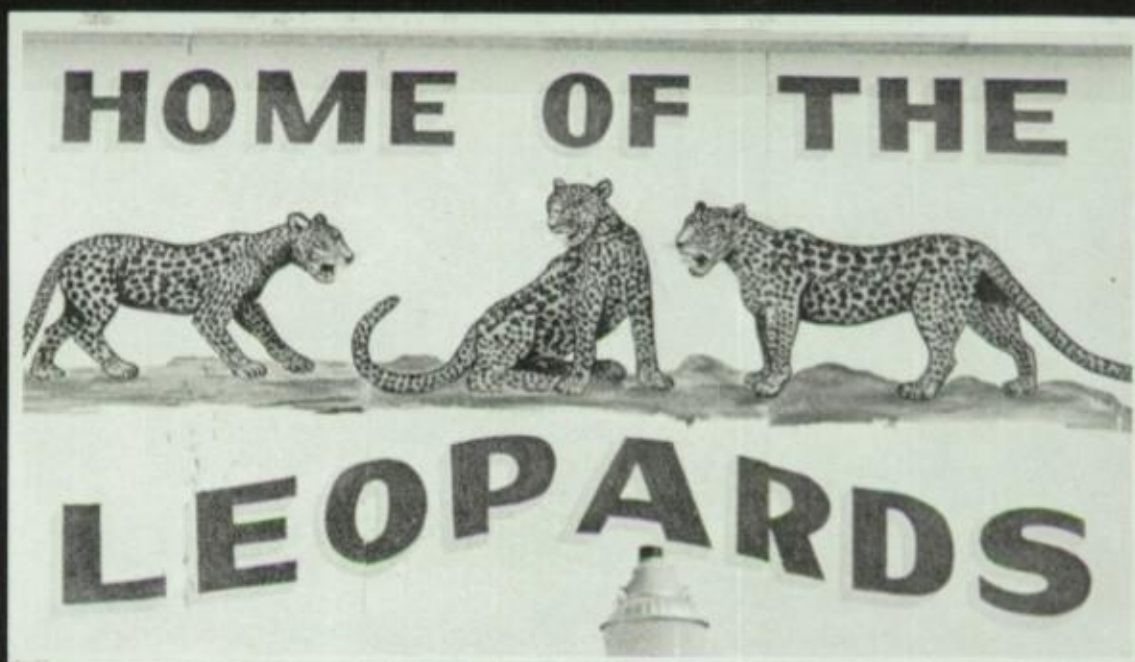

Students wishing to see Mr. Everhart now have to go to Room 11 across from the cafeteria, where his office, a student waiting room and a teachers' work room are located. This area has been carpeted, the ceiling lowered, the walls painted and paneled and new florescent lights installed giving a brand new look to an old room.

The auditorium has also been transformed from its older self to a new very practical area. The ceilings and walls were repainted and all the old chairs were removed and replaced with plastic stack chairs, making the auditorium functional for both dances and assemblies and also creating a space for the new student lounge.

The stage was not forgotten! It was painted black and a new wall replaced the old back drop. A new royal blue stage curtain was also installed giving the entire auditorium a cleaner sharper appearance.

One can find another improvement across town at the football field. to the sports' minded student and community.

We all welcome this new school image, Miss Temple, and Mr. Schlegel. A brand new stadium was built last summer and is proving quite an asset.

"It was a successful season but more important it was fun!" --- John Rasmussen.

After losing their first contest of the season, 29-20, to Beloit, the B-team boys got on the winning track and proceeded to win the rest of their games. Following the Beloit loss, Lincoln battled the Southeast of Saline Trojans and were victorious, 30-20. Sacred Heart was the Leopard's next victim, by a score of 26-6. Lincoln had little trouble stopping Lindsborg 42-13. The Ellsworth Bearcats were put in the loss column, 42-20, and the Leopards ended an impressive season with a 20-0 shutout over the Solomon Gorillas.

An explosive offense was highlighted by the spectacular passing game, with Rasmussen throwing to Abell, Loy, S. Campbell and D. Newell, and the steady running of D. Campbell, D. Hartzell and B. Abell. The devastating defense was led by the bone-jarring tackles of M. Murray, B. Abell and J. Powell.

"The boys worked hard and performed well. It was a real good season, and we had a lot of fun!" grinned Coach Ortiz.

The highly under-rated Lincoln football team gave their fans very competitive and exciting games, defeating three opponents and losing several close competitions. Fans were also treated to seats in the new LHS Stadium, a welcome addition for Leopard supporters.

To the surprise of many, the Leopards won their season opener, 8-0, over the Osborne Bulldogs. Lincoln lost in overtime, 9-6, to the Wildcats of Claflin, but came back the next week to upset the Southeast of Saline Trojans, 20-6. The Leopards were defeated by the Sacred Heart Knights in a heartbreaker, 16-14, then lost another close contest, 12-7, against the Lindsborg Vikings. The next opponent was the Ellsworth Bearcats, and the Leopards were victorious in the Homecoming contest, 24-8. Lincoln was shutout in their next two competitions, 27-0 by Solomon and 14-0 by Minneapolis. The final game of the season saw Lincoln fall to the State champion Trojans of Beloit, 35-6.

Team captains for the '77 season were Joel Kuchera and Tom Cundy. Tom was also chosen by his teammates to receive the Most Inspirational Player award. The players Voted Bret Folkerts as Best Lineman and Max Wallace as Best Back. Mac was chosen by the coaches as the recipient of the Most Valuable Player award.

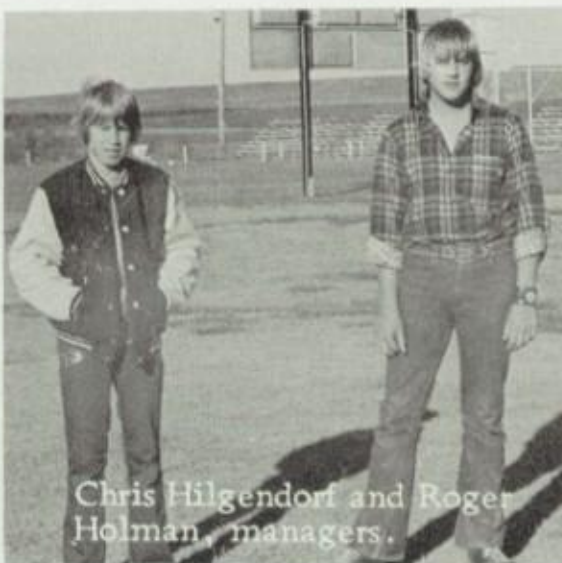

Lincoln finished the season with a 3-6 record overall and a sixth place tie in the NCAA.

Homecoming week, October 7-14, was one super-exciting, spirit-charged week, leaving a very vivid picture painted in each person's mind.

"Hat and Tie" Day started off the week, followed by 50's Day, Tuesday. Wednesday, October 12, was Jersey Day and the senior girls' Whitewashing Day. The parking lot, 4th St., Main St., and 1st St., in front of the football field, were all victims of the seniors' artistic talents. T-shirt Day began a very busy Thursday. The senior girls made posters for the auditorium and the fieldhouse 7th hour and managed to finish by the time the parade to the bonfire started at 5:00 p.m. The traditional dummy, representing the Ellsworth team, was stolen early Thursday morning, but with quick work another dummy was stuffed before the evening's burning. The bonfire was a great success and inflamed an already swollen spirit which seemed to burst Friday as Homecoming Day began. Blue and White Day flavored the students' clothing and suckers were prevalent throughout the school.

The afternoon ceremony began at 2:00 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The band opened the program with the themes from "Star Wars" and "Rocky". Mr. Schlegel gave a fantastic welcoming speech and introduced the Pep Club skit, "Twas the Night before Homecoming." Following the skit, Pep Club President, Tracee Hamilton, announced the juniors as winners of the hall decorating contest; then Dr. Cundy introduced the past Homecoming Queens. They were: 1968, Marie Kelly Moffit, escorted by Eric Jones; 1958, Jean Walters Hudson, escorted by Craig Garrison; and 1948, Cecile Kobbeman Errebo, escorted by Rick Donabauer. L-Club President, Brett Folkerts, then introduced the five Homecoming candidates and their escorts. They were Karla Battenhoff, escorted by Joel Kuchera; Judy Little, escorted by Max Wallace; Becky Nunn, escorted by Frank Cole, Jr.; Tami Panzer, escorted by Scott Meier; and Jan Pickering, escorted by Tom Cundy.

The auditorium silenced as Brett tore open the envelope and announced Judy Little as the 1978 Homecoming Queen. The crowd applauded wildly and Cheryl Rasmussen sang the Homecoming theme, "This One's for You", to the new Queen. The candidates then cleared the stage and the cheerleaders presented a pep rally in honor of Queen Judy. The band closed the ceremony with the song "Power to the People".

The scene was set for the power-charged parade from the high school to the football field. As the band played, the candidates and their escorts rode on a float dedicated to them. A special truck was set aside for the football team and the cheerleaders led a pep rally on Main St. preparing everyone for the evening's game against Ellsworth.

And what a game it was!! The Lincoln Leopards overpowered the Ellsworth Bearcats during the first half 18-0. Halftime entertainment included the L.H.S. marching band, the introduction of past Queens and the presentation of the Queen and her court with their evening escorts. The second half showed more Leopard strength with a 24-8 victory over all.

The intense spirit of the game carried over to an ecstatic dance presented by the Pep Club with Atlantis performing. The dance started at 10:00 p.m. and drew to a close at about midnight.

All went away with fond memories of that Homecoming night not soon to be forgotten.

NO "DUH" IN DEBATE

THE LINCOLN HIGH DEBATE CLASS complete with fearless leader - Mr. Jaderborg.

The ambitious students who pursue the intellectual study of debate are surrounded by multiple choices: (1) to copy their tactic from Texas Baylor Briefs, (2) to develop their own strategies, (3) to bombard their opponents with an ambiguous vocabulary, or, (4) to receive an "A" with the sides kicked out. The greatest choice made by the class (composed by Charles Longerger) is: Resolved Debate is no longer for

"limp wrists."

You "reach out" to achieve new heights.

The big issues and the small issues are equally important.

You "lay-it-all-on-the-line," to attain the impossible.

The actors of "Spoon River" revealed the lives of the people of mythical Spoon River, Illinois. The tragedy comedy, and prejudices of their lives was felt just as strongly in their graves.

"How would You like to create a sun,
And the next day have the worms slipping in and out
Between Your fingers?"

For the river is time
And it flows toward the sea
And in leaving its banks,
You are free, you are free.
But you're haunted, you're hunted.
Wherever you roam,
Spoon River, Spoon River
Is calling you home."

LIVE . . . LAUGH . . . LOVE . . . LOB!!

Thirteen girls reported for tennis practice in late August under the supervision of the new coach, Ray Everhart. The girls faced tougher competition this year by traveling south to "tennis country". The A-team schedule consisted of a dual with Ellsworth held in Lincoln, the Lyons Invitational, the Belleville Triangular, the Sterling Invitational, the Claflin Quadrangular, and the Chapman Triangular. The B-team had three matches this year: A dual with Ellsworth, a triangular at Belleville and the Russell Invitational. After the regular season was over, six girls attended Regionals held in Belleville. Cheryl Rasmussen and Syd Walter competed in singles and Nancy Rasmussen-Cathy Bishop and Kathy Hair - Joan Lagergren entered in doubles. Cheryl advanced to the quarter-finals, but was defeated by King from Hesston.

This year's lettering requirements stated that you had to play in two A-team matches. The method used to determine the A-team was to challenge for a higher position on the team. A team ladder was established at the beginning of the season and to get a higher position on the ladder, you had to beat the person ahead of you and keep climbin'!

The seven letterwinners were Cheryl, Cathy, Jackie, Kathy H., Nancy, and Syd. Tracee, Sheri, Terri L., Terri D., Lenita, and Valeri all won reserve letters.

The 1977 Volleyball season was one of excitement and challenge for the LHS Girls' Volleyball team. The season began with great enthusiasm due to a win against the Southeast of Saline Trojans.

The girls, with great determination, were not successful for the remainder of the season as far as victories; however, the experience they each received overall was a fun learning success.

1977 proved to be one of the best years ever in Lincoln High School Cross Country history. The team was young but had experience with 6 runners returning, including 3 lettermen.

The team won 6 individual medals, with Brad Lee leading the way with 4 and Steve Wallace and Jeff Longberger earning one each.

The team also won the first meet ever in LHS history, the Ellsworth Invitational.

Brad finished 5th; Jeff, 6th; and Steve, 11th, to lead the Leopards. Pat Myers took 4th and Bob Campbell 5th to bring home 'B' medals. When the dust cleared, the team had 9 medals and a place in LHS history.

On a cold, rainy day at Ellis, Brad Lee, the only Leopard to run at Regionals, finished 21st out of 112 runners.

Lettermen were Brad Lee, Jeff Longberger, Steve Wallace, Curt Douglass, and Charlie Longberger.

Coach Newell commented on his team, "We had some beautiful runners, beautiful people." The team also had its own training rules, like chasing girls!!! As one runner put it, "How do you think we stayed in such great shape?"

PRIDE OF SALINE

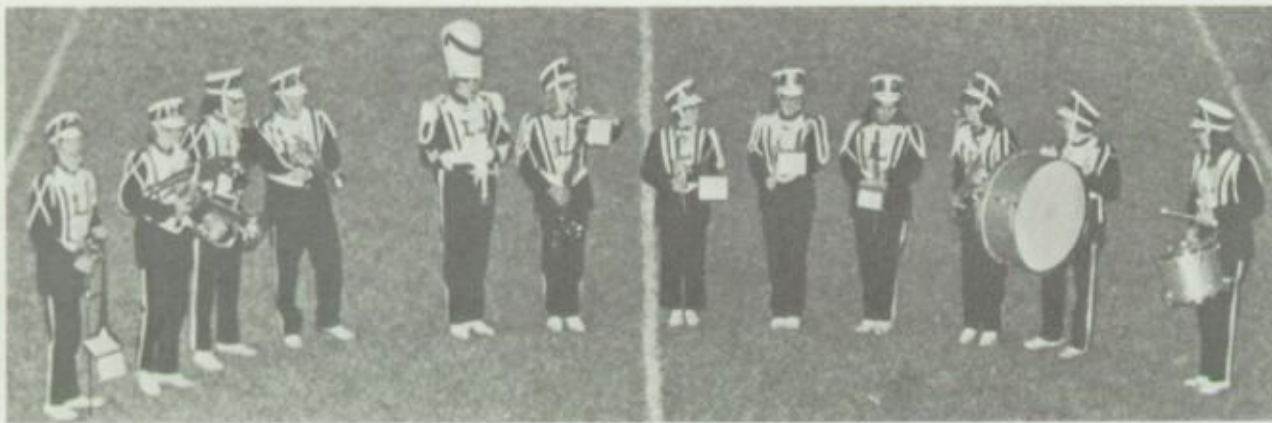

The band stands in formation for the twirler feature at the Homecoming performance.

Smilin' Sara

The Pride of Saline Valley Band, directed by Jerry Rife, showed precision skill with half-time performances at three home football games. They featured a diagonal drill to "Temptations" ending in a peel-off bow for their opening show. At Homecoming they lined up for a victory run-through for the team. Their last show (Senior Night) demonstrated both originality and strenuous labor for the circle drill and 96 Step Kaleidoscope. The band completed their great year with a script L, which began in a block form that unwound into the L and "exploded" for the grand finale.

The Seniors give their final performance to "Rocky": David Gourley, (trumpet); Curtis Douglass, (baritone); Spencer Donley, (baritone); Steve Steinhaus, (trumpet); Cheryl Rasmussen, (trumpet); Becky Nunn, (bass clarinet); Vicki Panzer, (flute); Judy Little, (flute); Carla Morrical, (clarinet); Jana VanAmburg, (saxophone); Sara Donley, (bass drum); Dora Gruber, (tenor drum).

A Smile of Satisfaction

The band forms a script L for their finale. The L stands for: (a) Ludwig van Rife, (b) Look at our Legs, (c) Lincoln High School.

VALLEY MARCHING BAND

The L.H.S. band benefitted much under the leadership of these seniors: Kenalyn Morrow, feature twirler, Cheryl Rasmussen, drum major, Tracee Hamilton, twirler.

Drum Major Cheryl Rasmussen proudly led the "Pride of Saline Valley Band" for the 1977 season. It was at the K-State Band Day that Cheryl directed the band to a new marching cadence, thus their new title "Band With Hiccups".

Kenalyn Morrow - feature twirler

Cheryl conducts the band during the Homecoming parade.

Hup, two, three, four. The band marches in unison (we hope).

Kenalyn twirls with fire for her solo routine. She also did performances using knives and two batons.

Tracee Hamilton

Kathy Morrow

The twirlers: Kenalyn, Tracee, and Kathy, enhanced the half-time performances with exciting routines. Throughout the season they showed their skills by using various batons and by intermixing their actions with dance steps.

Freshman means:

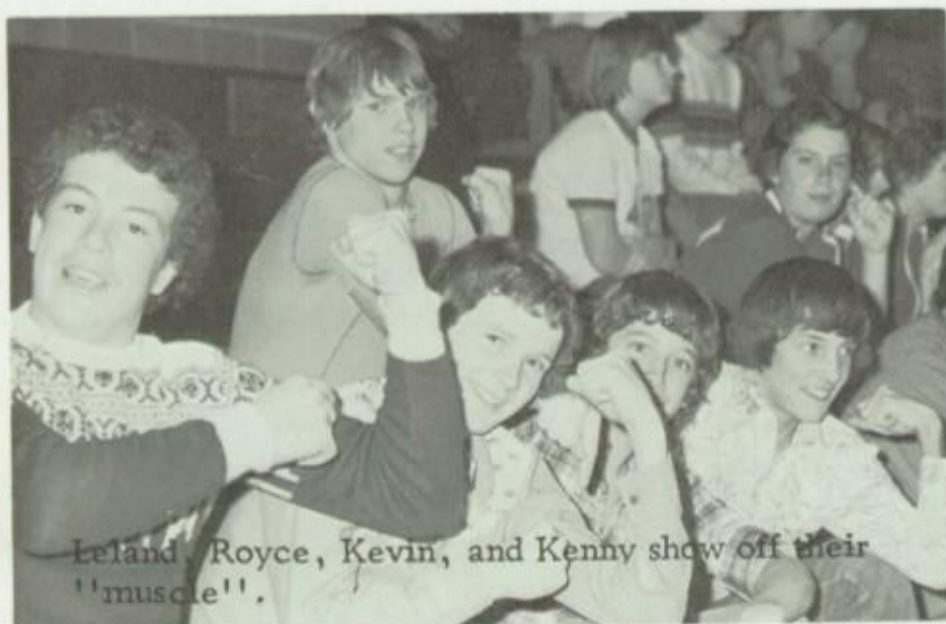

- a. someone who wants to crawl in the backseat on their first date.
- b. a rare tropical disease.
- c. the youngest members of a group.

The Class of 1981 began their freshman year with the usual amount of anticipation - and dread! But the youngest Leopards soon became accustomed to 10-minute break, the stereo in the lounge, and the janitor bell.

Soon the organizations of LHS were infested with eager freshmen, ready to do anything. They participated in many clubs, as well as in sports.

The freshmen class was the smallest class at LHS, with only 39 members. But the class seemed to have a great deal of unity. Perhaps they believed in "safety in numbers"!

Most of the ninth-graders agreed that after the 'new' wore off, it wasn't bad being a freshman!

Some of the big events of the year for most of the sophies: getting the keys to the car, ordering class rings, "Sweet 16 and never been ??", making it through biology with only minor scrapes, "staying out" until 12:00 pm, and not double-dating (without Mom and Dad).

WHAT IS THIS?

The LHS yearbook staff wanted to try something a little different with the '78 annual. We want you to remember everything that happened in school, but also the important events out of school. In reading our Leopard Tales, you will relive the lice infestation as well as learning the results of our LHS survey.

So read on, and relive '77-78.

DAYS OF OUR LICE

"Are you clean?" was the most frequently asked question at LHS during the spring of 1978. It had nothing to do with the annual spring bath. The question referred to head lice!

On March 17, Joy Gorsuch, school nurse, began checking heads for nits, the eggs of the lice. The first to be inspected was the girls' basketball team, since they had been to the State tournament at Emporia, where the lice were thick. Next checked were the Forensics team, band, and anyone who had gone to Emporia for the game. Due to the startling number of cases, everyone was checked by the end of the day. 70 cases, or one-third of the school, had head lice.

The drug stores had soon sold out of lice shampoo, and had to send as far as St. Louis for more.

Surrounding towns were also infested - Beloit, Solomon, and Salina.

The next weeks were filled with head checks and false rumors as to how to treat the lice. Quell shampoo, vinegar, and kerosene were some remedies used by LHS students.

The lice provided some excitement for LHS students despite all the headaches (no pun). Soon everyone could joke about the lice, and a common expression among students was "Have a Lousey Day".

1978 ACADEMY AWARDS

There were some pleasant surprises at the 1978 Academy Awards, despite political statements and no-show winners.

Woody Allen was a double winner, taking the Best Director and Best Screenplay Awards. In the tough competition for Best Actress, Diane Keaton surprised the West Coast by winning the Oscar. Richard Dreyfuss took Best Actor honors, while Jason Robards won the Best Supporting Actor bid. Vanessa Redgrave was awarded the Best Actress Award, then tarnished the gold by stating political views.

Star Wars took nearly every technical award, and You Light Up My Life won the Oscar for Best Song. And, for the final surprise, Annie Hall was chosen as the Best Picture.

'77-78 SPORTS

The thrill of victory and the agony of defeat were evident in the 1977-78 sport's season in and out of school.

On the college scene, Notre Dame pulled an upset victory to take the top honors in football. Kentucky took NCAA roundball honors, while KU won the Big Eight Conference.

The New York Yankees won the World Series. The Kansas City Royals won their division race, but were beaten by the Yankees, who in turn defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers, to become World Champions.

In Super Bowl competition, stalwart Dallas defeated the Cinderella story Denver Broncos, despite their "Orange Crush" defense.

Virginia Wade took the women's division of Wimbledon this year, along with Vilas in the men's division.

The Seattle Supersonics were still battling with the Washington Bullets for the NBA crown when this book was printed.

In our league, the NCAA, Beloit took the football title (and the State championship), Sacred Heart won boys' basketball honors, and Lincoln was the girls' division champions. Lincoln also won their Regional and Sub-State tournaments. Southeast of Saline won the track title in the boys' race with Lincoln finishing second. Sacred Heart took the golf title, and Lindsborg walked away with first in boys' tennis.

POLITICS

There was a lot of blood shed in the '77-78 political arena - literally and figuratively.

Terrorism reached an all-time high during this period, with incidents such as the Moro murder in Italy. Patty Hearst, suspected of Palesine Liberation Organization sympathies, was sentenced to serve a prison term. Feelings on her case ran from extreme sympathy to extreme satisfaction.

The Arabs and Israelis finally sat down together to work out their differences. Little real progress was made, but both sides showed desire to end the fighting. Sadat, President of Egypt, and Begin, Prime Minister of Israel, exchanged views on trips to each other's country.

President Jimmy Carter's popularity dropped to staggering lows. According to a Harris poll, if the Presidential election would have been held on May 24, 1978, Ford would have defeated Carter by 5%, Regan would have topped the President by 1%, and Ted Kennedy would have beaten them all. Meanwhile, brother Billy Carter continued to make more money than the President by making personal appearances, and his own brew, Billy Beer, hit the national market.

The U.S. signed an agreement to give the Panama Canal to Panama in the year 2000. Farmers went on strike in December, demanding 100% parody. The coal miners also went on strike for the longest period ever in their history.

1977-78 was, in other words, politically like any other years in history, full of turmoil with some bright sides thrown in. And that's the way it was ...

LHS SURVEY RESULTS

or
IT'S A MAD MAD SCHOOL!!

Do you know the favorite song at LHS during '77-78? What was the favorite apparel for school? What kind of car did everyone want to own?

The LHS yearbook staff set out to discover the 'favs' and 'fads' of our school year so that in years to come we will remember. The results were as diverse as the students themselves. The one category most students readily agreed on was school apparel. A whopping 97% said jeans were the best dress of LHS. Reasons given were 'comfortable', 'practical', and 'neat'.

Music plays an important part in everyone's life, and what's playing in the student lounge (and how loud it's playing) was the topic of much discussion at LHS. Students were asked to 'name that tune' in the form of three favorite songs. This was the LHS Top Ten Singles of '78:

Stayin' Alive	Bee Gees
Dust in the Wind	Kansas
Come Sail Away	Styx
You Light Up My Life	Debbie Boone
Sometimes When We Touch	Dan Huel
Point of Know Return	Kansas
Night Fever	Bee Gees
Freebird	Lynard Skynard
We Are the Champions (tie)	Queen
Stairway to Heaven	Led Zeppelin
Fooled Yourself	Styx

A multiple choice of tastes was demonstrated in the student's answers to the question: 'What is your favorite rock group?'. Country-western, disco, and hard rock all found their way to the list:

TOP TEN ROCK GROUPS/SOLO ARTISTS

Styx	Lynard Skynard
Kansas	Barry Manilow
Kiss	Foreigner
Bee Gees	Fleetwood
Boston	Andy Gibb (tie)
	Waylon & Willie

Finally, students informed us their radio dials were most frequently tuned to KSKG, an FM station in Salina-99 on the dial. Other popular stations were KOMA (Oklahoma City), KSAL (Salina), and KCMO (Kansas City).

Taste buds are also diverse at LHS: 33% of LHS students liked Mountain Dew; 31% chose Pepsi first, and 24% were 'part of an original crowd', drinking Dr. Pepper.

On Saturday night, LHS students are scattered all over the area. Some head for Salina, some stay home, and some can be seen 'dragging main' and adding to the energy crisis. Most students indicated partying and riding around as their favorites.

TV is a big part of the lives of high school students. Asked to list their favorite shows, students again displayed their varied tastes. Comedy and drama played an equal part in the list of LHS Top Ten TV Shows:

MASH	Muppet Show
Eight is Enough	Soap (tie)
One Day at a Time	Three's Company
Black Sheep Squadron	Saturday Night Live

Sept. '77-May '78

Little House on the Prairie

Baby, I'm Back (tie)
Waltons

We've looked at some top choices, but students were also asked to list their least favorites. The results were, in some cases, surprising (not only short people dislike Short People) and in some amusing (You Light Up My Life and We are the Champions appear on both the Top Ten and Bottom Ten lists). The Bottom Ten Songs at LHS are:

Short People	Randy Newman
You Light Up My Life	Debbie Boone
Star Wars	Meco
Lucille	Kenny Rogers
Blue Bayou	Linda Ronstadt
Close Encounters	Meco
Here You Come Again	Dolly Parton
We are the Champions	Queen
Do run run (tie)	Shaun Cassidy
Heaven on the 7th Floor	Paul Nicholas
Always and Forever	Heat Wave

The Bottom Ten Boob Tube Shows were:

Lawrence Welk	Donny & Marie
Kojak	60 Minutes
Hee Haw	Maude
Soap	Brady Bunch
Wild Kingdom	Wonder Woman

Other notables: Most students indicated they would like to own a Camaro, Trans Am, Corvette, or a Mustang. 44% of the LHS males were against the Equal Rights Amendment; 42% were for it, and 14% were undecided. On the feminine end, 36% were against the ERA; 42% were for it, and 22% were undecided. 58% of LHS students side with the KSU Wildcats, 18% with the University of Kansas Jayhawks, 19% have no preference, and 6% chose another school.

A sad note: Students no longer have anyone to admire. About half the students couldn't name anyone they looked up to. Many others, however, named their parents or a relative, and some answered with rock stars or actors.

The future of LHS students looks bright. 68% of the students plan to continue education after high school; 16% will go straight to work; 5% will marry; and 11% will travel, goof around, or 'sleep', as one student said.

50% of the seniors will attend school next year; the juniors will see 75% of their number further their education; 65% of the sophomores want to continue school after high school; and 38% of the freshmen wish to go to school after graduation.

The majority of every class indicated that the year they were now enrolled in (at the time of the survey) was their best.

Last, but not least, 62% of the students of LHS believe the lice infestation was the most exciting thing that happened in school this year. 13% thought going to the State tourney in girls' basketball was their biggest thrill, and 21% answered with other events such as graduation and Homecoming.

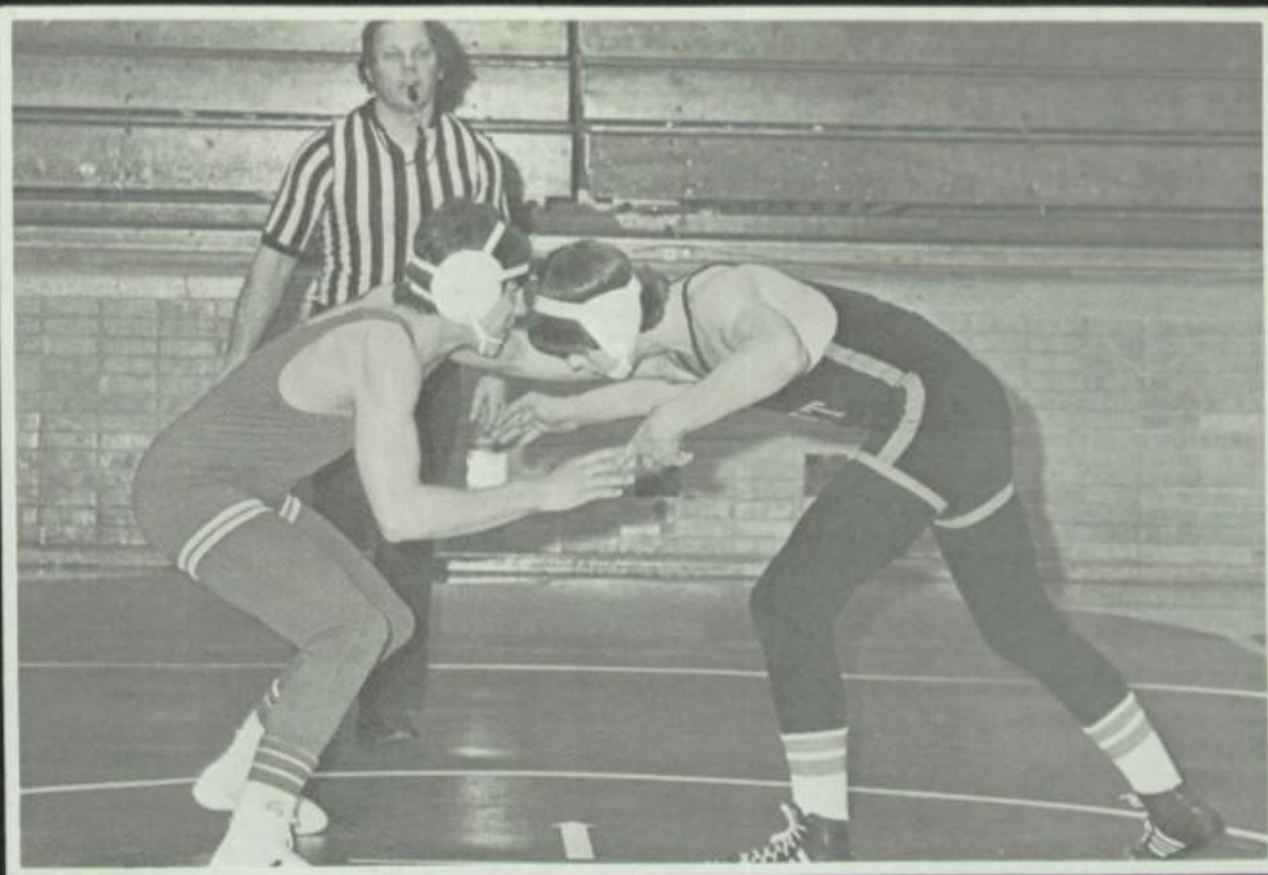

The surveyors learned alot about LHS students, but perhaps the biggest lesson was this: All students have diverse tastes and opinions, and this gives our school a 'multiple choice' of people and personalities.

The youngest roundballers, the freshmen basketball team, compiled a record of 3 wins and 5 losses. The boys won their first 2 competitions over Southeast of Saline and Ellsworth, then hit a slump, losing 4 in a row before knocking off the Osborne Bulldogs, 56-32.

The Junior Varsity ended their season with a 2-7 record, beating Beloit and Southeast of Saline. The freshmen and sophomores combined for a post-season tournament team. The team lost, 49-38, to Lucas-Luray.

"Close ... but no cigar" best describes the '77-'78 season for the Leopards. Lincoln lost to 3A Russell 75-41, then bounced back to beat Lindsborg 51-50. After a defeat by Sacred Heart, 100-78, the Leopards fell to Beloit 72-66, then lost three close contests in a row, to Southeast, 47-46; Osborne, 39-36; and Minneapolis, 65-63. Solomon downed the Leopards 67-58, then Lincoln fell to the Bearcats 43-31. The Leopards were victorious over the Lindsborg Vikings 58-48, but lost the next game to Sacred Heart, 83-73. Lincoln competed in a mid-season tournament at Salina, where they played Sacred Heart for the third time and lost 59-40. The Leopards also met 4A Salina South and lost 65-53, then played 3A Kansas City Turner who defeated them 78-42.

Lincoln resumed regular season action against the Trojans of Beloit, and fell 56-51. Southeast of Saline tripped the Leopards 62-49, then the Big Blue lost to Minneapolis in overtime, 64-63.

Lincoln defeated the Solomon Gorillas 66-64, to give them their third victory of the season. The Leopards lost their final regular season match to the Ellsworth Bearcats 68-55.

The squad entered Regional competition at Washington February 21. In yet another close contest, the boys were defeated 55-51.

Senior Joel Kuchera summed it up this way: "We learned that there is alot more to basketball than winning. It was a good learning experience."

Lincoln knocked off 3A Russell for the first win of the year, 57-31. The girls suffered an early setback as the Lindsborg Vikings defeated the Leopards 43-40. Lincoln next stomped the Sacred Heart Knights, 58-30, then defeated the Beloit Trojans 49-40. The Leopards had a hot night against the SES Trojans, winning 73-36, before the Christmas break.

In January, the Leopards picked up where they left off, whipping the Osborne Bulldogs, 62-35, then squeaking past Minneapolis 57-56. Solomon was the Leopard's next victim, 50-37, then the Ellsworth Bearcats fell to Lincoln 43-22.

Lincoln won an important game against the Lindsborg Vikings, 53-49, to put them in sole possession of first spot in the NCAA. The Leopards next whipped Sacred Heart, 59-25.

The girls won the mid-season tournament hosted by Minneapolis for the second time, beating Belleville, 47-24, and Beloit, 38-28.

The varsity again met the Beloit Trojans and handed them a 57-43 loss. The next victims were the SES Trojans, 56-27, and the Minneapolis Lions, 54-39. The Leopards clinched the NCAA title by defeating Solomon, 58-47, then ended regular season play by knocking off Ellsworth, 54-26.

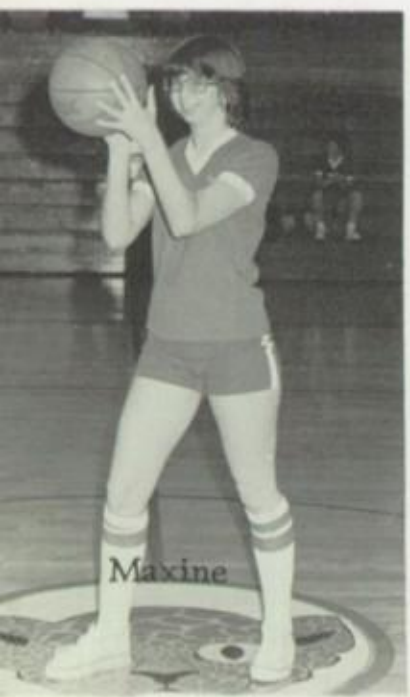

Regional competition began February 22 against the Belleville Buffaloes at Lincoln. The Leopards stamped the Buffs, 58-11, to advance to the semi-finals at Mankato February 23. The Leopards met and conquered the Smith Center Redmen, 69-41, to assure them of a Sub-State berth. Lincoln beat Linn in the championship game to win their second Regional crown in two years.

Lincoln faced Northern Heights March 3 at the Beloit Sub-State Tournament. The Leopards were victorious, 63-42, and moved on to play Horton for the State berth. Again Lincoln won, 53-41, to give the Leopards their first trip to State.

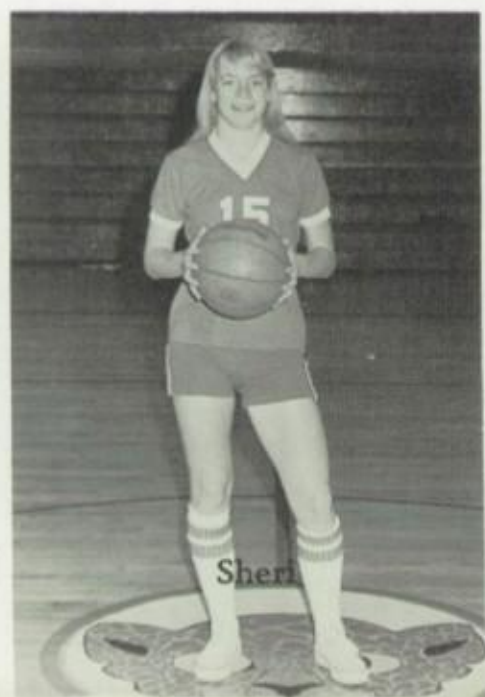

Lincoln traveled to Emporia March 9 and met a tough Medicine Lodge team, who defeated the Leopards 51-35. The season ended with a 22-2 mark.

The girls were under the leadership of coaches Joe Ortiz and Lisa Temple.

The girl's B team racked up an impressive 7-2 record, winning their first 7 games against Russell, Sacred Heart, Southeast, Osborne, Solomon, Lindsborg, and Beloit, before dropping their last two contests to Minneapolis and Ellsworth. The Junior Varsity shows great promise for the coming years.

Kayettes!

What exactly is a Kayette? If you would happen to ask a 1977-78 member you might get some answers like these: It is an organization that —

- doesn't mind getting dressed in 2001 apparel for a membership party
- cleaned off Halloween soap-smear windows as a money-making project
- fixed large vats of bubbling-hot chili for a before the game football crowd
- gave grade school kids a Halloween party
- gave the student body a Christmas Sno-ball dance.

Mrs. Gourley and her hanging plant — a gift from all her Kayettes.

- sang carols at the rest home
- made May baskets for the faculty
- presented the school board with refreshments at one of their many meetings
- hosted an installment tea for all Kayettes and their mothers
- ... and the list could go on and on.

One characteristic shines through in all Kayette activities. It can be expressed in two little words —

The team went 5-1 in dual competition and placed fifth out of eight teams at Osborne. They also attended the Beloit Invitational, where the grapplers finished tenth out of sixteen teams.

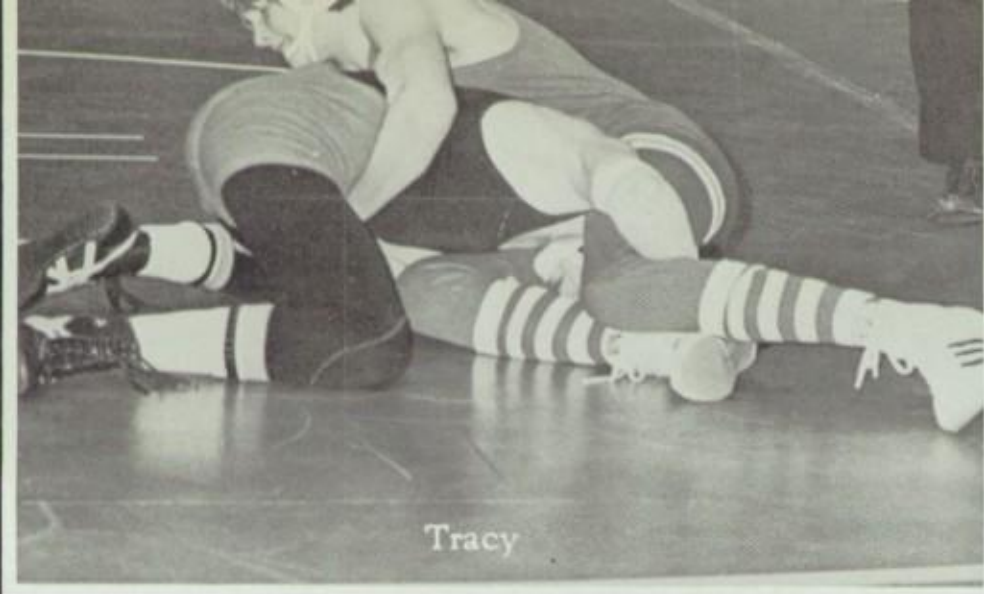

Regional competition was held at Herington February 10-11, and Lincoln placed seventh out of sixteen teams attending. Mark McCarter took fourth place in the 98 lb. weight class, while Ryan Branfort placed second in the 145 lb. weight class. This qualified the two boys for the State competition at Beloit February 17-18. Neither boy placed at the State tournament. The team was coached by Darrell Schmeidler.

The LHS Pep Club made many changes this year, and one of the first was to change its name to Blue Machine!

Blue Machine began its work in the summer, having a bake sale to earn money for Homecoming. The organization sponsored many money-makers that enabled them to provide picnics and feeds for the student body, and locker gifts for the athletes. Among these activities were the selling of spirit chains, and a watermelon feed.

Homecoming was the club's biggest undertaking, and this year's was the best ever. Three past queens were able to attend, and Judy Little was crowned the 1978 Queen. The Leopards were victorious over Ellsworth in the football contest. The largest crowd ever attended the dance that followed.

The girls had a chance to show off their football prowess at a Powder Puff football game. The contest pitted the seniors and freshmen against the sophomores and juniors, and ended 0-0.

The club also sponsored dances, picnics, and got all organizations involved in the Pep Rallies. Most students agreed that school spirit was raised in a fun way.

Besides helping finance the Homecoming ceremony, L-Club sponsored a Dizzy Dribblers-Faculty basketball game. To everyone's surprise, the faculty team was defeated. But the students still found plenty to cheer about when Mr. Thompson got a pie in the face.

The sponsor was Mr. Griffith.

The year started for German club with the election of officers. Becky Nunn served as president; Randy Sporn, vice-president; Elaine Moss, Sec. - treas; and Susan Crawford, Stuco representative.

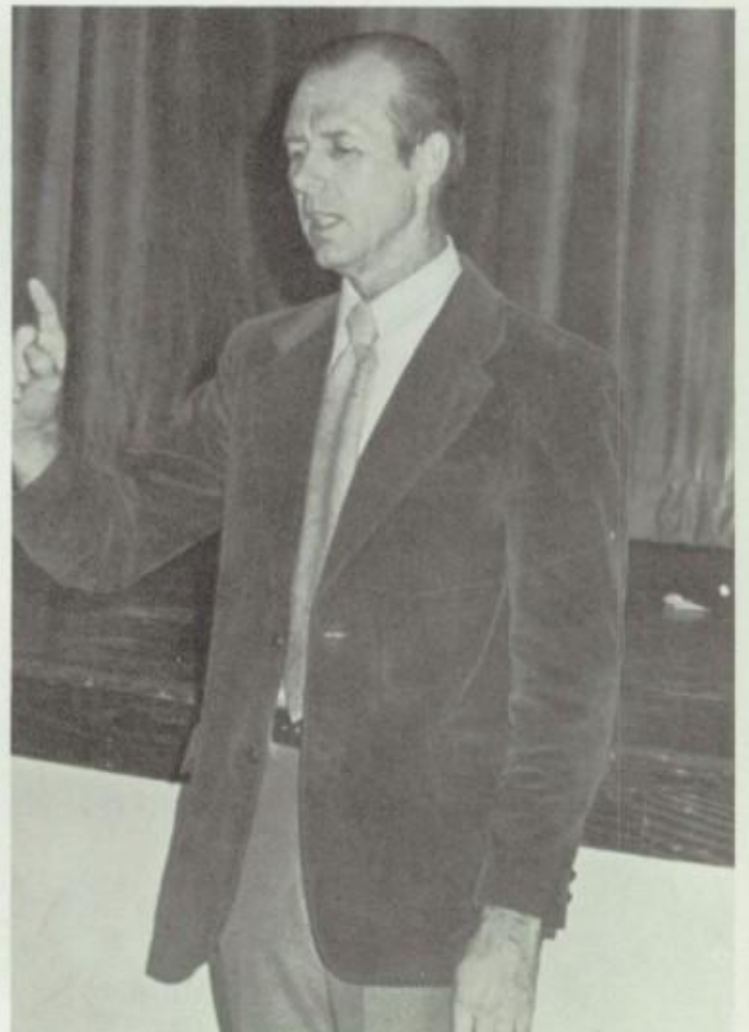

Each month German Club held a meeting to discuss activities or view the German film 'Ein Bild von Rathenbourg'. The December meeting provided a German Christmas program, with skits and carol singing. Refreshments were served after the program.

April 29, seventeen German club students traveled to KU for State German field day. Susan Crawford received second place in reading advanced prose.

The German club activities came to an end May 17 with a picnic in the park.

This year's Student Council set several goals at the beginning of the year and when the end of the year came around, most of these goals had been accomplished. First of all, the suggestion box was made and placed in the lounge. Then, Stuco purchased two couches for the lounge, to go along with the stereo.

One of Stuco's activities that it hopes will become tradition at LHS is having dances after all of the home football games and periodically during basketball. Stuco sponsored these dances and "DJ" Dan Cole provided the music.

Another "first" for Stuco was sponsoring two box suppers, one in the winter and one in the spring. The ladies fixed delicious suppers that the men bought. This proved to be a lot of "out-of-the-ordinary" fun.

All in all, Stuco had a very prosperous year thanks to all of the hard workers.

Dan Cole DJ's one of Stuco's famous dances.

TWO WIND SONGS WITH AFS

The new family: Mr. & Mrs. Sheldon VanAmburg, Mandi, Jana and Rubi Galvez.

I will never forget that August afternoon when the wind blew and seemed to sing a GOODBYE SONG.

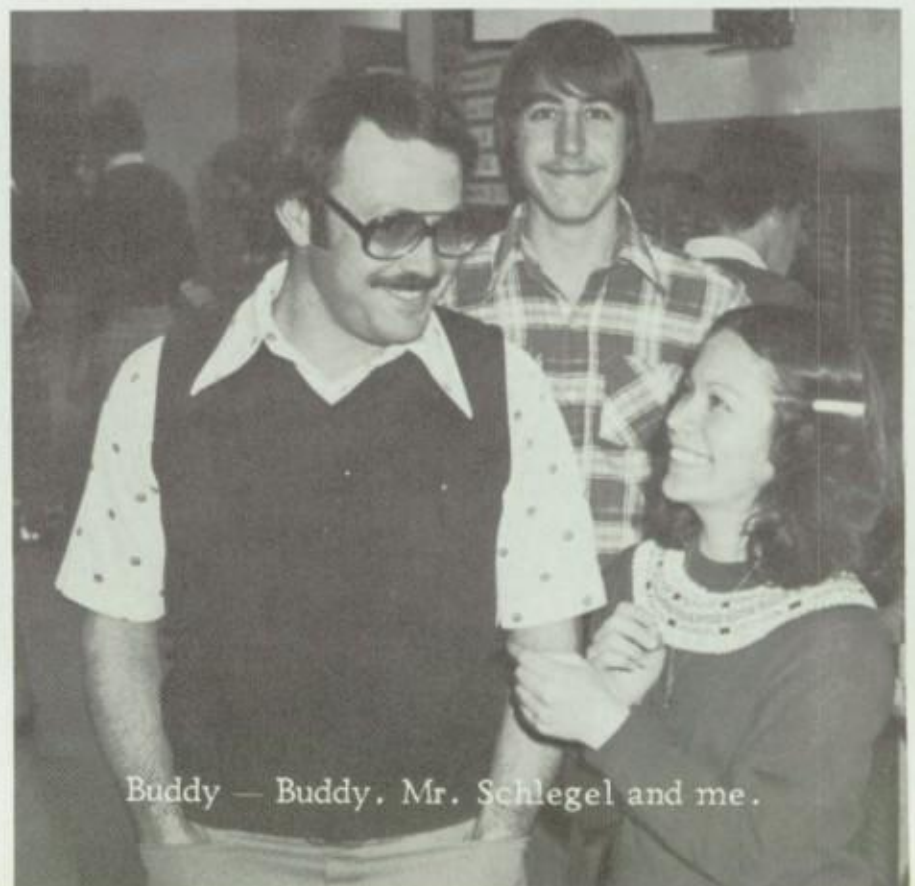

I don't know what my feelings really were; I was excited and nervous, but I was confused.

Mami didn't want to show her sadness; but when she gave me the last kiss I felt her tears falling on my face. My father was serious when he told me "ADIOS".

Then a voice announced the number of my ticket. The wind kept singing, and it was sad.

But now after I've ridden horses, helped with the chores at the farm and enjoyed the winter's beautiful (but cold) snow, I'm ready to go back home, kiss mami and papi again, see my sisters, brother and friends, and I'm going to tell them . . .

"I had a wonderful year! With snow and trees without leaves; I found people that love me and I love; I've met many, many friends, and, I felt in my face a KANSAS HAPPY WELCOME WIND SONG."

Buddy — Buddy. Mr. Schlegel and me.

The highlight of the 1978 track season was taking 2nd place at League, according to coach Brad Griffith. That was just one of several surprises the track team provided during the year.

Two seniors competed at the State Indoor meet in Manhattan March 31-April 1. Max Wallace took 1st in the Long Jump, and Joel Kuchera placed 2nd in the High Jump.

The team then competed in the Minneapolis Invitational, Ellsworth Invitational, and the Lindsborg Invitational. The team finished 5th at the Beloit Relays, and made a good showing at the Sacred Heart Invitational, then hosted the Lincoln Invitational.

Joel and Max competed in the G-W Track and Field Classic in Hesston April 29. Joel took 1st in the High Jump, and Max landed 2nd place in the Long Jump.

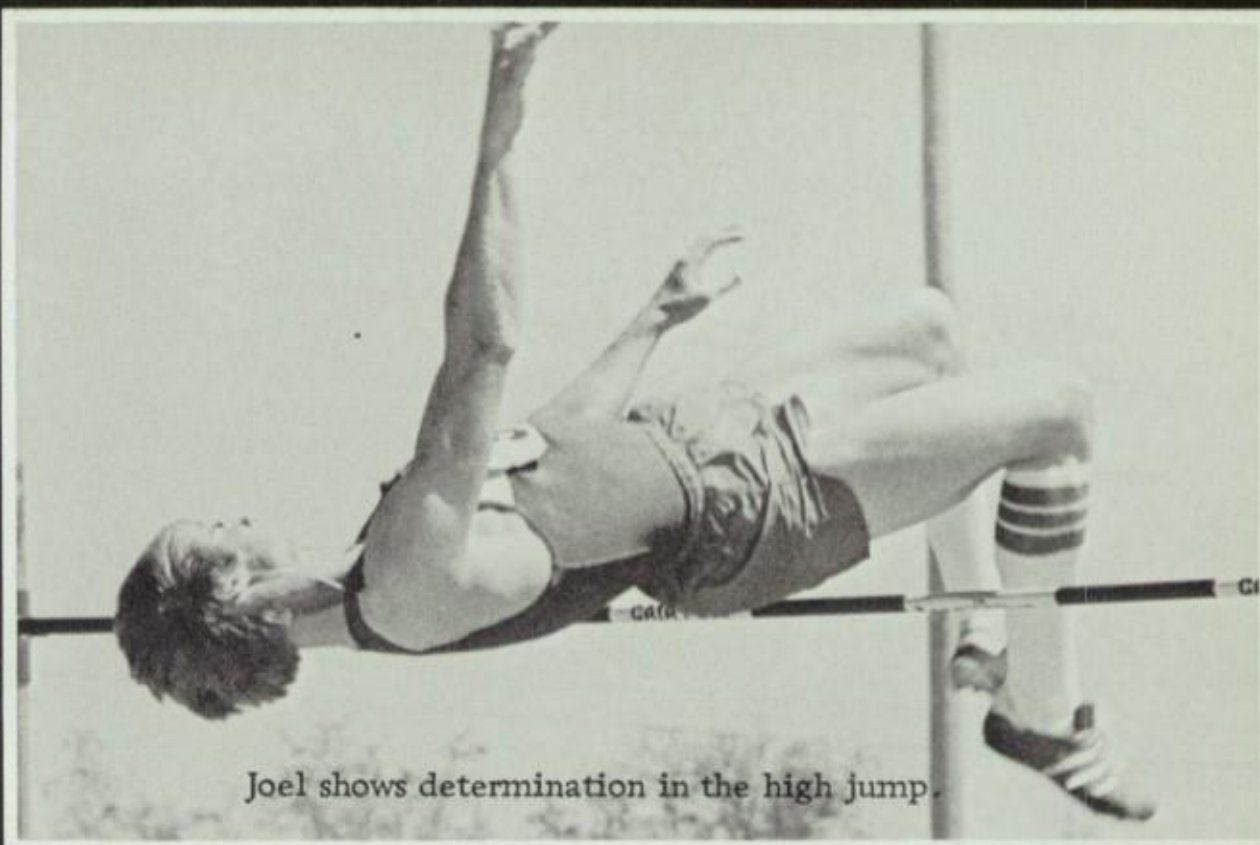

The Leopards racked up 75 points to finish 2nd at the League meet which helped prepare them for the regional at Belleville. The Leopards finished 3rd with 37 points. Two boys, Max and Joel, qualified for the State Outdoor meet held at Wichita South High School.

Joel brought home gold in the High Jump with a leap of 6'8". Max finished 5th in the Long Jump with a distance of 21'11 1/2".

The team also got new uniforms just in time for pictures!

Dan throws the javelin.

Joel shows determination in the high jump.

Max leaps 22' at the Regional meet.

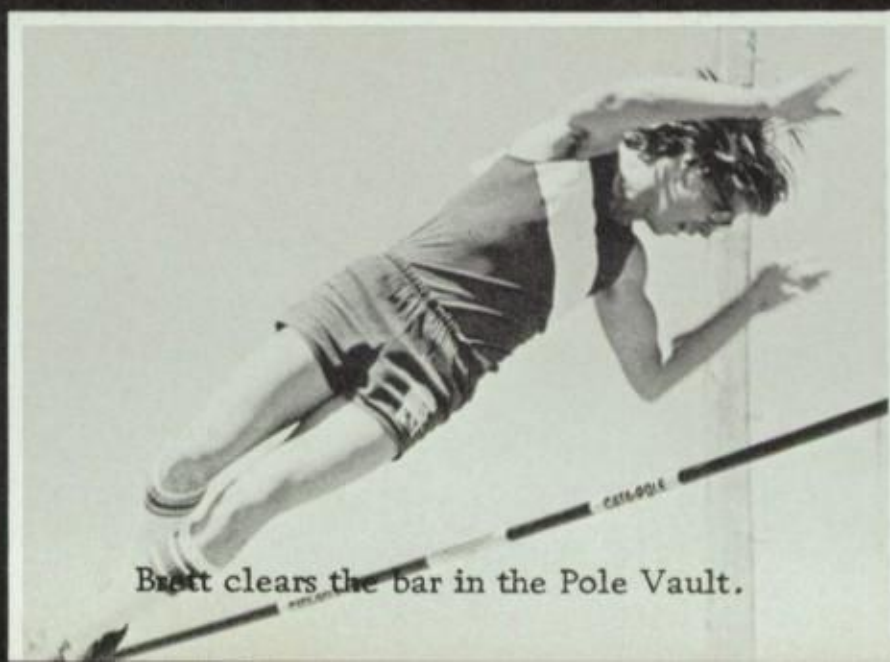

Brad sets his pace in the mile.

YOUNG BUT TALENTED TRACK SQUAD

The girls' track team performed well this season despite their inexperience. With five freshmen, one sophomore, and one junior, the team made strong showings at all their meets. Managers Lenita Maze and Becky Peters kept things running smoothly, and the team was coached by Jean Converse.

Junior Jo Lagergren's specialty was the 100 yd. low hurdles; Jo Cole ran the 440 yd. dash and long jumped. Holly Hansen placed at several meets in the discus and shot put, which Val Branfort also competed in. Robbin White also ran the hurdles, and Syd Walter and Judy Suelter ran several dashes, and also combined with Robbin and Jo for relays.

Jo Cole was the only Leopard to place at Regionals, placing 5th in the 440 yd. dash. The team shows great promise for the future.

Mr. Jaderborg.

Whether exploring Mr. Jaderborg's "Roots" or "cranking" on bus trips, the Forensics team truly was "back in the saddle", taking great trips and great "tinks".

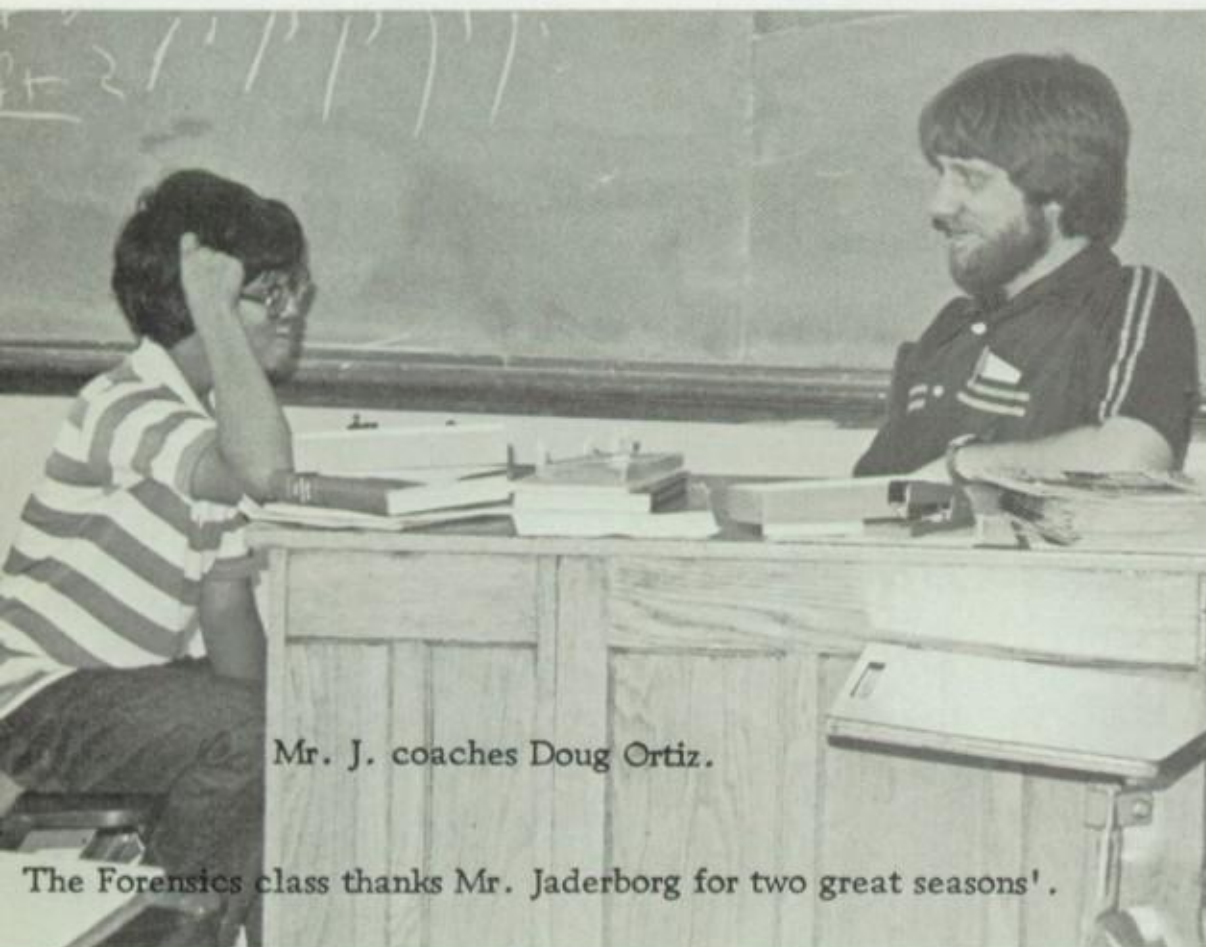

The squad competed in four tournaments during the '78 season, and placed 2nd in two of them - the League tourney March 11, and the Sylvan Invitational March 17. Other competitions were the Great Bend Invitational and the Lindsborg Speech Festival.

Lincoln won its first Forensics trophy this season (at Sylvan), and hauled in 25 medals before the State tournament; 16 firsts, 6 seconds, 2 thirds, and one fifth.

The squad made the best showing ever at the State Tournament in Hays April 15. Of nine events entered, the team earned 1's in eight of them. Those receiving "State gold" were Kenalyn Morrow (Inf.), Jo Smith (Inf.), Elaine Moss (Extemp.), Doug Ortiz (Prose), Doug and Charlie Lonberger (Improv.), Dan Cole and John Rasmussen (Improv.), and Tracee Hamilton (Extemp. and Oration).

FADS-N-FASHIONS

DO YOU REMEMBER WHAT WAS GREAT IN '78? HERE ARE A FEW OF THE POPULAR FADS - N - FASHIONS:

Spencer Donley displays the new fashion of styled men's hair complete with sideburns. (left)

Sara Donley looks right in style with metallically belted gauchos and matching vest. Her Western boots were also big items this year.

Amy Brummer and Kathy Morrow wear the favorite winter apparel, ski jackets. Similar versions of Amy's eyelet bow tie shirt and Kathy's cawl-collared drawstring shirt were found in the wardrobes of many LHS females. Kathy also wears the "big hit" of the year, the stick pin.

DIGITAL WATCHES
An accessory for most.

Susan Crawford (right) was one of the "daring" who had their ears double-pierced. Her jewelry is smartly emphasized by her feathered hairstyle. Variations of this hairstyle were seen throughout LHS.

The fashionable feet were sandaled in knee high socks.

Tracee Hamilton dresses up the No. 1 fad, denim. Kenalyn Morrow (right), like most high schoolers, prefers the comfortable look of overalls, rugby shirt and tong sandals.

The modern production of a play-within-a-play proved enjoyable for all involved. The complicated plot revealed "whodunnit" and gave insight into the lives of all of those who play "second string."

PATTY KISSICK - SOLO

TRUMPET TRIO

The band excelled in three major concerts this year: Christmas, Winter and Pre-Contest. The Pre-Contest material featured a slow tempo, "Spiritual" by Don Gillis and a presto piece, "Prelude and Rondo" by D. Holsinger. The band, judged on the above selections at state contest, received a II and a I on sight-reading. The band was also judged in various combinations of ensembles and solos. Those ensembles receiving I ratings were clarinet choir playing "Divertimento" by J. Haydn and trumpet trio (Cheryl Rasmussen, Tammy Feldkamp, Joan Lagergren) playing "Trifolium" by E. Leidzen. Two soloist, Patty and Nancy grabbed golds with "Sonata" by H. Eccls.

LHS golf had a new experience this year — GIRLS on the golf team!! Kathy Morrow, Jeana Watson, and Jackie Jensen all played for the first year.

Other golfers were Lane Gourley, Kevin Collins, Tom Newell, Scott Gorsuch, Jim Bowie, Brad Spear, Milton Schultz, and Tracy Jorgensen.

The A-team competed in meets at Minneapolis, Beloit, Osborne, Ellsworth, Lincoln, Mankato, and the NCAA at Sacred Heart.

The regional was held at Halstead, where the 4-man team of Bowie, Gorsuch, Schultz, and Jorgensen — qualified for the state sand greens at Lincoln. They placed ninth, but since all the golfers were underclassmen, and women, watch out for them next year!

COME SAIL AWAY

Karla Little, Jr. Class President

The Junior class outdid themselves in the making of Prom '78. Decorating began the week before the dance, as eleventh-graders built the ship, gang-planks and lighthouse that were to serve as the backdrop for the theme "Come Sail Away!" Finally, after adding last minute touches and readjusting the streamers, the gym-and the juniors-were ready.

The Prom was held April 22. Festivities began at 6:30 at the St. John Lutheran Church with a special banquet. Junior President Karla Little invited seniors to "Come Sail Away"! President Tom Cundy responded for the seniors and thanked the juniors. Kathy Morrow sang the theme song by Styx, accompanied by Don Effland. The dance began at 9:00 with Skydancer providing the music. Palm trees, treasure chests, and fish nets were part of the decorations that surrounded Prom-goers as they stepped off the ship onto the dance floor. As Prom drew to a close, many juniors and seniors realized they were sailing away from the 1977-78 school year-but with the best send-off possible!

THANK YOU FOR

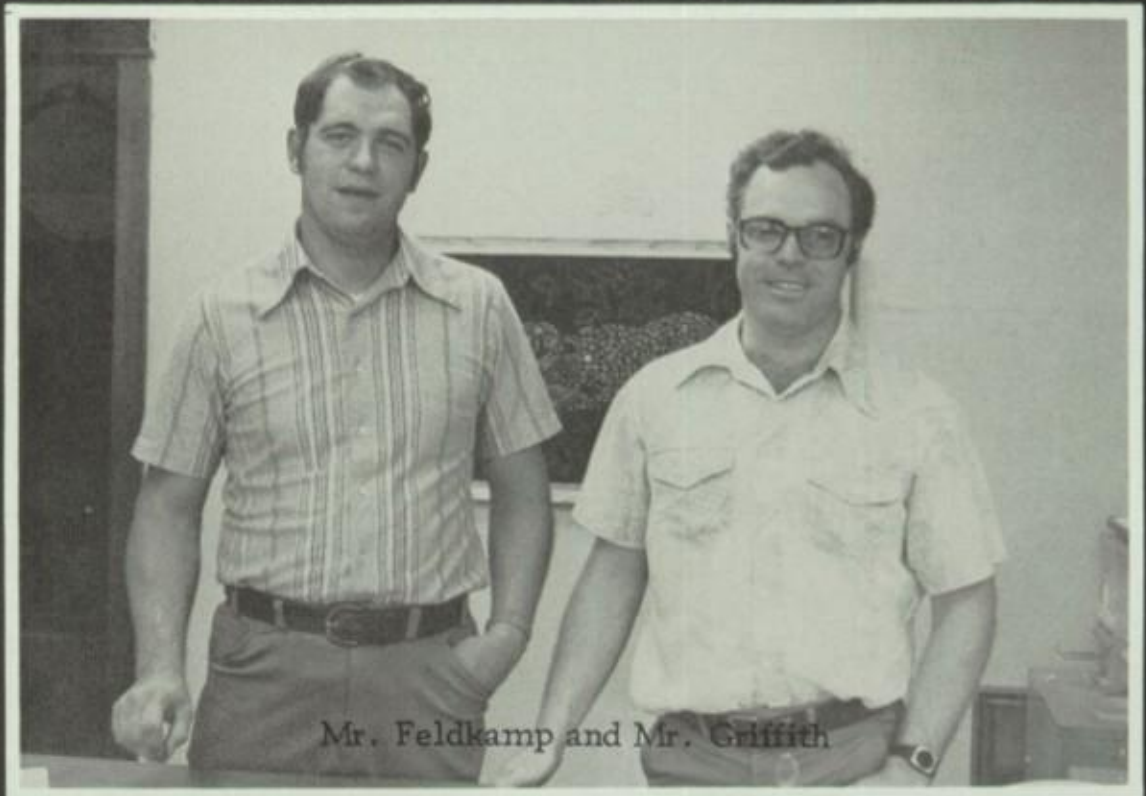

Several teachers will be leaving LHS for what, we hope, are bigger and better things. We wish them well in whatever they do, and thank them for helping us grow.

Eric Jaderborg has been the speech and drama coach at LHS for the past two years, as well as teaching Humanities, and several English classes. Mr. Jaderborg, a graduate of Kansas University, hopes to continue to teach. In addition to debate, forensics, and the all-school plays, Mr. Jaderborg was a freshman class sponsor. Mr. Jaderborg's most enjoyable moment at LHS was "working on UTBU", (1977 spring play), and "speech trips, like the picnic at Coronado Heights." He went on to say he thought Lincoln was a very friendly place to live.

"Give me a break!"

Mr. Feldkamp and Mr. Griffith

"Kill, kill!"

Brad Griffith has instructed Math classes at LHS for three years. His classes ranged from Algebra I to Sr. Math. In addition, Mr. Griffith also was the head football and track coach, a sophomore class sponsor, and L-Club sponsor.

Mr. Griffith, a graduate of College of Emporia, will teach in Wakeeney next year, where he will be the assistant football coach and the head basketball coach.

He has been married seven years. He and his wife, Nikki, have two children, Chris, 4, and Tara, 1.

When asked what he liked best about LHS, Mr. Griffith answered "the kids".

"Mercy!"

Gary Feldkamp is a six year veteran of Lincoln High. He has instructed math, chemistry, and physics' students. Next year he plans to be "working at something".

A graduate of College of Emporia, Mr. Feldkamp and his wife of eight years, Susie, have two children, Bryan, 4, and Mitchell, 2.

Mr. Feldkamp most enjoyed "the kids".

Jerry Rife leaves LHS after three years as the band director to work for his Doctorate in clarinet performance at Michigan State University. Mr. Rife, who graduated from Kansas State University, taught band and music theory, as well as instructing the Humanities class on music history.

He and his wife of five years, Leslie, have enjoyed living in Lincoln, which Mr. Rife describes as a "nice, quiet little place" where "the kids worked hard".

Miss Temple and Mr. Rife

"Hey Lady!!"

Lisa Temple, a graduate of Southwestern, leaves LHS to seek her Master's degree in vocal performance at Kansas State University. She will also work with undergraduate music majors.

Miss Temple taught vocal at LHS one year. She was also the Pep Club sponsor, Jr. class sponsor, and assistant girl's basketball coach. She named voice lessons and working with the students as her most enjoyable moments at LHS.

The Class of 1979 proved that a very diverse group could really stick together as they tackled their third year at LHS. Perhaps the group was close so they could keep warm in the infamous Breezeway!?!

The Juniors had the awesome task of organizing the Prom, and they started the year off by setting a magazine sales goal of $5000 - and reaching it! Besides putting in long hours in concession stands to earn more money, the hard-working eleventh graders won the hall decorating contest during Homecoming week.

Faced with changes in their senior enrollment plans, the Juniors again showed a unified effort to adjust. Whether in student government, in athletics, or in clubs, the Juniors added their special touch.

Some people see things as they are and say "Why." I dream things that never were and say "Why not."

BRICE DARRELL HERMAN
Do every act in thy life as if it were the last.

ERIC A. JONES
Failure is the condition that gives success its flavor.

DARYL GENE KRIEGH
Stand for the things you know are right.

DAVID ALLEN KRUSE
I believe living is just being satisfied.

JOEL ERIC KUCHERA
If you were somebody else, would you be your friend?

BRADFORD D. LEE
There is nothing stronger than an idea whose Time has come.

JUDY ANNE LITTLE
The only way to have a friend is to be one.

DENNIS RAY LUCK
The future is not a gift; it is an achievement.

MARCI JO MEIER
O' Lord, help me to understand you ain't gwine to let nuthin' come my way that you and me together can't handle.

WESLEY SCOTT MEIER
Those who think they know it all upset those of us who do.

JEFF MEYER
Make a loud noise, or you may go through life without even being heard.

STEVE MEYER
Sometimes it's Heaven, and sometimes it's Hell.

CARLA MARIE MORRICAL

A friend is one who comes in when all others leave.

KENALYN MORROW

To accomplish great things, we must not only act but also dream, not only plan but also believe.

TAMARA KAY PANZER

Keep your face to the sunshine and you cannot see the shadow.

VICKIE LYNN PANZER

Be yourself; no one can tell you you're doing it wrong.

REBECCA FAY PETERS

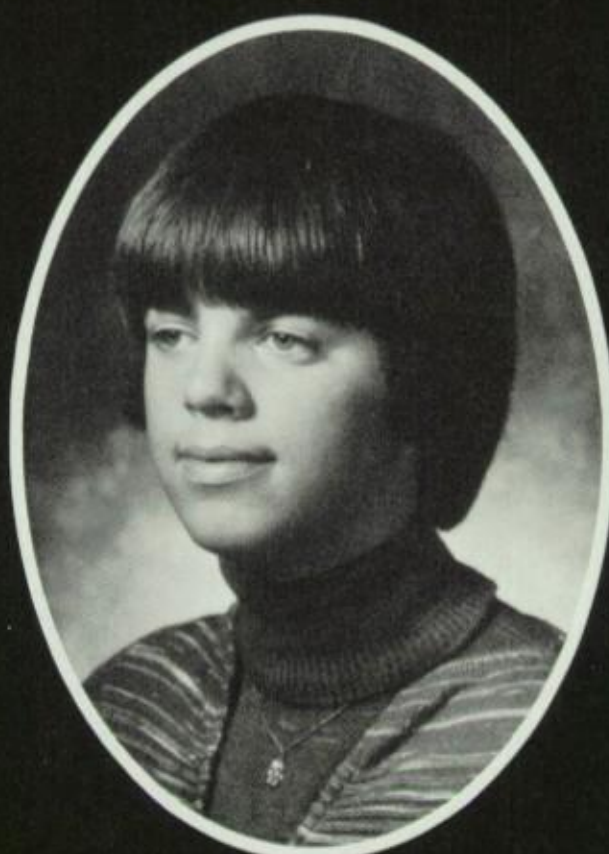

If you do not understand my silence, you will not understand my words.

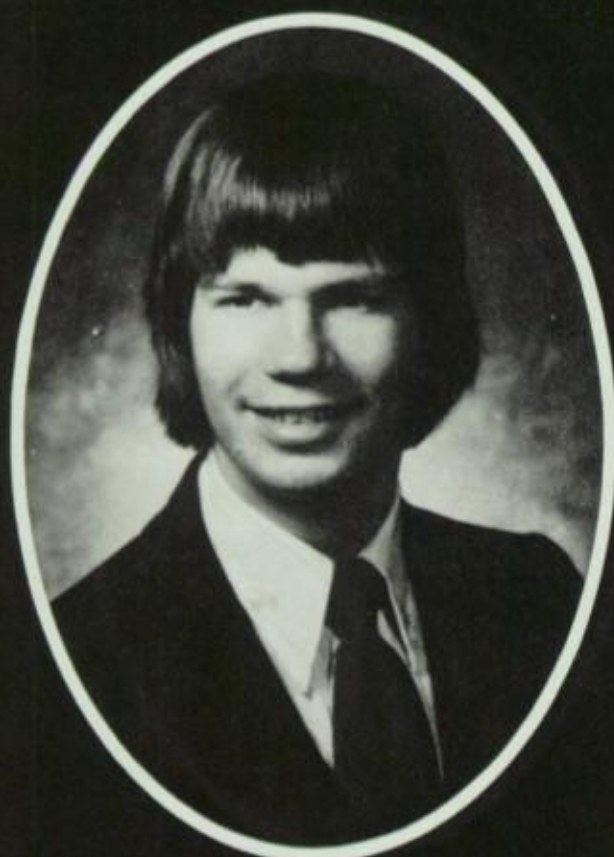

JANNE MARIE PICKERING
I stand for the things I know are right.

JAMIE POWELL
Never look back, something might be gaining on you.

CHERYL ANN RASMUSSEN
Life is like walking through the snow; every step shows.

BARRY G. REINERT
For my friends I will do anything, for my enemies I will do nothing.

SHARON J. SHELDON SCHNEIDER
To be different is to be yourself.

RANDY JOE SPORN
I am not afraid of tomorrow, for I have seen yesterday and I love today.

STEVEN E. STEINHAUS
If you want to soar with the eagle;
Don't sty out with the owls at night.

JANA MARIE VAN AMBURG
One smile is worth a thousand words.

MAX D. WALLACE
It is with life as with a play; what matters is not how long it is, but how good it is.

RHONDA ZACHGO
To enjoy life is better than success
